The climate, the high quality of life, the low cost of living, the availability of affordable housing, the gastronomy, the culture and the character of the friendly and hospitable people of Andalucía are hallmarks of this region, and the reasons why professionals from all over the world move to southern Spain to live and work remotely from here.

International teleworker hub

The number of these professionals has grown in recent years to the point that Andalucía is immersed in the development of plans to position the region as an international hub for teleworkers and a place of reference for professionals in the digital economy.
